Hounds: HYP, Dancin Fool, Hand Solo, Safety Tits, Caligulation (fresh off rabbiting for the Kenyans at the Philly Half), Delicate Psyche

Seen at start: Thuy (not so fresh after running the Philly Half)

Seen en route en bicyclette: Safe Sweats

We Are ETS Familee

For the first half of the hash we were serenaded by the ETS Family Picnic Band. We all lined up at the start according to planned splits. DP took the 6:00 group out at a good clip then ran into the Sugar Shack nestled in the woods, or was it a Branch Davidian Compound?

"We're not in Columbia anymore, are we" quavered Safety Tits.

What was left off the pack struggled through thorns to the strain of I fell into a burning ring of fire sung several octaves too high. Dancing Fool ran James Brownian motion for 30 mins then head back to the cars to be soon joined by Hand Solo wearing his $30,000 Bryn Mawr shorts. HIMZ was spotted en route, caught and released.

"Girls jus' wanna have fun" sang the family picnic band. That would explain why none of them showed for this hash.

Hash ended at the Broken Bridge and all the waves finally made it in.

Next Week: HYP ushers in Autumn.
