Not so valiant effort: Spanking Ryan's Privates

Unfortunately, no one's fingers recovered enough to pound out a write up, so a hare's point of view will have to suffice:

HARD CORE X

No T-shirts, No money, No whining, No singing!

Three hours of nosebleed-inducing altitude, flesh rending thorns, ankle-wrenching boulders and raging rivers highlighted this year's hard core. Rambo failed to deliver the much anticipated Hard Core Malt liquor and unlike his so-called "benchmark of all hard cores", at least the pack found a trail. Ouippee swam the Raritan, putting Joy's canal crossing of old to shame, Paully circumnavigated the first beer check to visit Bumps' mom in Califon, and Juicy reluctantly ran trail. Jeb was at the monster truck rally drinking Coors, thereby sparing the pack from potential perforations as they crossed his target range.

Unable to attend, RoJo provided a moldy bitter melon for apres enjoyment, Dancin Fool's mother provided a birthday cake, and Private Ryan, not having actually run the trail, tried valiantly again to lead the Princeton HHH in song. Beer and down-downs crowned the event and a hash bash at Good Friends commenced for the survivors.

Next Hashes:

VOLUNTEER, you miserable wankers... don't make me come after you!
