

Jorie Moss

Soprano

Soprano JORIE MOSS is a versatile performer of opera, musical theater, and art song. As an emerging artist with Seagle Music Colony, she appeared in the roles of Margaret Johnson (The Light in the Piazza), Papagena (Die Zauberflöte), and Giannetta (L'Elisir d'Amore). In Europe, she recently appeared as Susanna (Le nozze di Figaro) with Lyric Opera Studio Weimar. Additional roles include the title role of Iolanta, Mademoiselle Silberklang (Der Schauspieldirektor), Dew Fairy (Hansel and Gretel), La Ciesca (Gianni Schicchi), and Le Feu, La Princesse, and Le Rossignol (L'Enfant et les sortilèges). A lover of art song and poetry, she has also been seen on the recital stage and in master classes in New Jersey, New York, Indiana, and Virginia. Jorie received additional training with The CoOPERative Program, SongFest, and Lied Austria International. Currently based in Philadelphia, she holds degrees from Westminster Choir College and DePauw University.

