

Dr. Thomas Juneau

Conductor

Thomas Juneau, D.M.A. www.ThomasJuneau.com

Hailed by critics as “versatile and appealing”, conductor and composer DR. THOMAS JUNEAU is Director of Choral Activities at Saint Joseph’s University where he conducts the University Singers, Chamber Singers and teaches voice and conducting. Dr. Juneau is also Music Director of Summit Chorale, currently in its 107th consecutive season of choral performance and director of the Woodbridge Community Chorus. Both choruses have performed in many important venues including Carnegie Hall. His professional choir, the Juneau Vocal Alliance has earned international recognition for its performance on the soundtrack to Frontera (2014) with music by Kenneth Lampl, and the release of their debut album on Ravello Records, Visions Eternal, featuring sacred works by Dr. Juneau. He also guest conducts throughout the region, including at the famed Messiah Sing-In hosted by the National Choral Council that occurs annually at Lincoln Center.

As a composer, Dr. Juneau’s works are published by a variety of companies, including the Carl Fischer Music Company, Hal Leonard Corporation, ECS Publishing and Walton Music. He has received numerous commissions throughout the United States, and his work has been performed internationally.